SENATE BILL 854 COMPLIANCE

The California Legislature imposed a registration requirement for contractors and subcontractors involved in public works projects. Senate Bill 854 created a registration program, which went into effect on July 1, 2014, to fund the California Department of Industrial Relations' (DIR's) monitoring and enforcement of prevailing wage laws. The bill requires public agencies to include notice of the registration requirement in their bid invitations and bid documents

Contractors and subcontractors wishing to work on a public works project must be registered with the DIR. Registration and related information is available at the following DIR website link:
